CALL for

BICT Fest 2018 Volunteer

We are looking for enthusiastic and committed volunteers to help us run BICT Fest 2018.

Great opportunities that you will get in return of your time and energy:

- To watch world class professional shows and participate in our activities
- To learn how an international theatre festival is organized
- To meet and discuss with international children's theatre festival organisers, experts, and artists from around the Globe

Our volunteers should meet the following qualifications.

1) Age of 18 or above
2) Able to communicate in Thai or English
3) Interested in our field, enthusiastic, and committed to the assignments
4) Available during May 2018
    a. pre-festival period during 1-14 May 2018 (to attend 2-3 group meetings)
    b. festival period during 15-29 May 2018 (we definitely need you on Thu-Sun)

Our volunteer's responsibilities are to help support our team in each area.

- Festival Information and Ticket Desk

  Providing information and suggesting shows or activities for our audiences and participants. Helping with ticket and souvenir sales.

- Front of The House

  Ushering audiences in theatre, and participants in workshops and forums

- Stage

  Coordinating and assisting in stage management at each theatre

- Crazy Studio

  Providing information and guiding children and families in art activities at Crazy Studio Zone by Freeform

Join us by registering here

As we only have limited positions available, we may have to select the most suitable ones as deemed appropriate in case there are a lot of interested candidates.

Bangkok International Children's Theatre Festival (BICT Fest) presents works by theatre professionals who create their pieces especially for children and families. BICT Fest 2018 includes 9 performances from France; Germany; Scotland; Japan; The Philippines; and Thailand, plus forums and workshops for professionals, families, and children with different abilities.